Description

Cork sanding blocks are the traditional back blocks for hand sanding and the Haydn® Cork Sanding Block will help you get the job done. Made of compressed cork, it is just stiff enough so that it can sand efficiently but has enough give so that minute imperfections and changes in wood will get sanded too. This not only makes the sanding go a lot faster, but it also means that the entire piece of sandpaper gets used. It can also be carved to the shape of various mouldings with ease, making it a useful yet inexpensive option too.
