Description

Two Fussy Mini Roller Handle – Short

Wooden Handle with stylish black rod and threaded end for extensions pole.

Featuring a stylish wooden handle, our mini-roller frames are ergonomically crafted and made from sustainable materials rather than relying on plastic that can take centuries to decompose. Choose Two Fussy Blokes for a more eco-friendly frame. With a sophisticated black finish, they're made from environmentally sourced materials and designed for maximum comfort. These roller frames are rigorously tested to ensure your mini rollers can spin effortlessly, saving you the stress and making it easier for you to get the job done.

At Two Fussy Blokes, we're aware of the huge impact our industry can have on the natural world. This is why we want to take a stand against unnecessary waste; sourcing quality wood that won't cost the earth, and cutting down on pollution as much as possible. These mini paint roller frames are made from environmentally sourced materials and designed for maximum comfort.
